10th November 2017

Dear Parents/Carers,

As part of the National Anti-Bullying initiative, we will be participating in our own Anti-Bullying week next week (13th- 17th November). During this week, the children will participate in activities which will support them in understanding what bullying is and what to do if they witness it.

This year the theme is 'All Different-All Equal'. The children that we can and should celebrate our differences but also understand how important it is to work together and appreciate how those differences help us all to be a better community.

As part of the launch of Anti- Bullying Week, we are asking all children to come into school wearing odd socks on Monday 13th November. This is an opportunity for children to express themselves and appreciate individuality and uniqueness!

A parent workshop will be held on Tuesday 14th November between 9.05 -9.45 to inform parents and carers about the activities that the children will be completing during the week. Also the school's anti-bullying procedures will be shared and explained.

Yours sincerely,

Ms Blackburn
