

Year 1 Spring 2 Holiday Homework

Writing Challenge

This half term, Year 1 have been learning all about writing a set of instructions and most recently made their own naan bread! Now it is your chance to write your own set of instructions! You could try out a recipe at home with your parent/carer or build/create something and then write the instructions to share with the class.

Please bring your instructions back on Wednesday 17th April 2023 and your teacher and Ms Millward will be taking a look at them.

Key Features

- a 'You will need' list which explains what ingredients or tools are required
- numbered points
- 'bossy' verbs (imperative verbs) such as 'put', 'take', 'mix', 'spread'
- Instruction texts also often use time connectives at the start of each numbered point ('First', 'Next', 'Then' and 'Lastly').

You might want to add pictures to help the reader.

Presentation

You can choose how you want to present your information. You might want to use:

- Written and illustrated on paper
- IT (for example a PowerPoint or word)
